Product Termination Notification

UA-2703
6.Jul.2022

To : Customers

1. Products to be discontinued

In recent years, following products is very difficult to predict the demand trends so we have not increased the production capacity.

It is also very difficult to fulfill the supply responsibilities due to the decline of the productivity from the production facilities deterioration and due to the difficulties of the material procurement.

Therefore, we would like to announce the termination on the products following the schedule described in the "3. Discontinued date".

We regret any inconvenience this announcement may cause,
Please contact our local sales representative if you have any questions.

2. Discontinued products

Aluminum electrolytic capacitors
Series : ROB

3. Discontinued date

Last order date : 31. Oct. 2022

Sincerely,

A. OYAMA
