WW2203, July 2022

Product Discontinuation – EK.../35 protective earth terminal blocks

Dear Valued Customer,

Weidmüller would like to inform you about an upcoming product discontinuation. The products listed below are intended to be discontinued and will no longer be available after a transitional period.

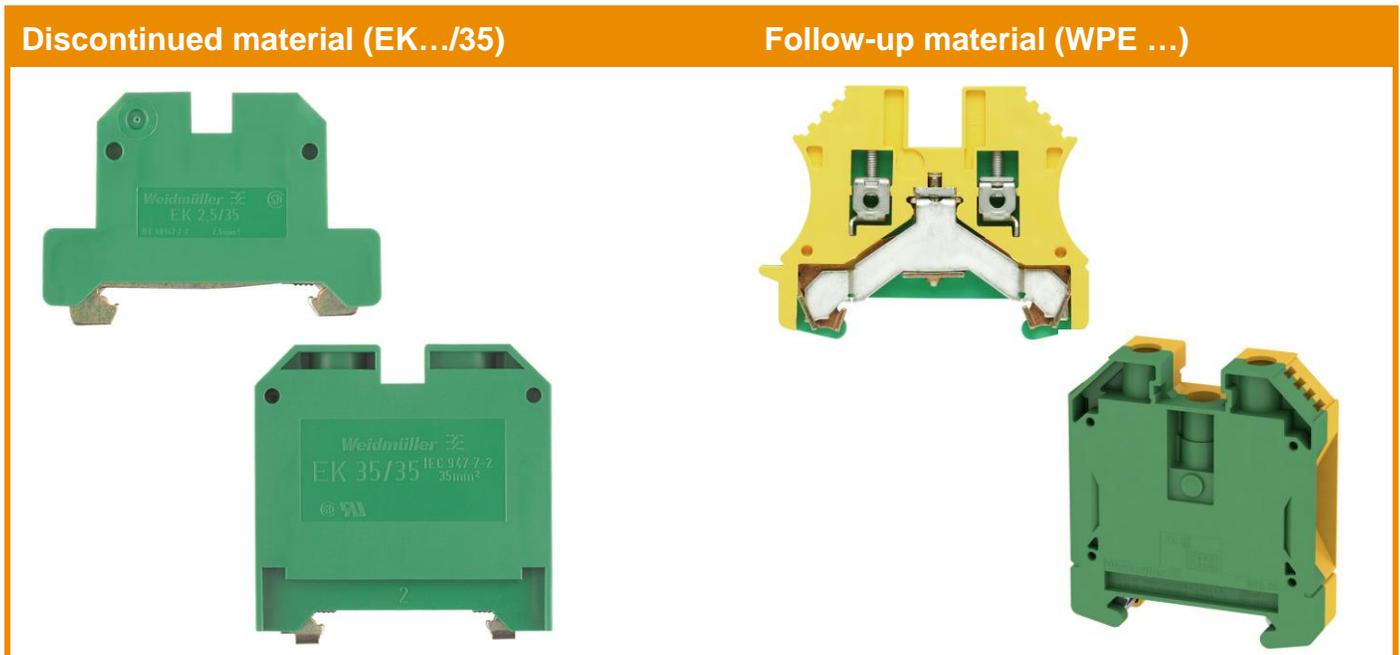

Initial situation:

With the EK.../35 family and the WPE family, there are currently two protective earth terminal block families with screw connection for TS 35/7.5 and TS 35/15 mounting rails.

Due to decreasing (quantities) demand and to reduce the complexity of the product portfolio, the EK 35 family will be discontinued and replaced by the protective earth terminal blocks of the WPE family.

Availability:

The protective earth terminal blocks of the EK.../35 family will be discontinued July 31st 2023.

Reason for Change: This product discontinuation has been made to support our continued commitment for improvement and ongoing product development.
