Cinch Authorized Distributors:

Effective immediately, the below part number is being discontinued. Unfortunately, because of manufacturing issues we are unable to offer a last time buy. Please make the appropriate changes to your system. If you have any of the discontinued parts in your inventory and wish to return them, you have 30 days to request an RMA. The parts will need to be functional and purchased from Cinch Connectivity Solutions within the last two years.

The part number affected is:

41V (4639911109-50)

Cinch apologizes for any inconvenience this may cause you or your customers. Please feel free to contact Cinch if you have any questions.

Thank you,
