Dear Kathy,

Re: Response to Request for Information – China Compulsory Certificate

This letter is in response to your request for information as to whether this 3M product requires the China Compulsory Certificate safety mark:

Digi-Key Number	3M Stock Number	3M Part Number and Description
SCP288-ND	78-9236-5282-6	497ABF 220 VOLT UNIVERSAL SERVICE VACUUM

The 3M Electronics Solutions Division Regulatory Affairs Department has determined that this is a commercial device and is to be used for commercial industrial applications. This is not a consumer device and is not intended for consumer applications. Therefore, this device is out of scope of the products that require the China Compulsory Certificate safety mark.

Sincerely,
